Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 8 is objected to because it fails to reference claim 7, which it was clearly intended to depend on. A suitable correction would be: "A user interface as in claim 7, wherein..." Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S.

Patent No. 6,248,946 (Dwek).

Referring to claim 1, Dwek discloses in Figure 3A displaying controls that indicate current search criteria [341-343], simultaneously displaying results of a search defined by said search criteria [344], simultaneously displaying at least one current task to be performed with respect to selected ones of said results [345-347] and indicating said selected ones [344], and simultaneously permitting access to controls to modify at least one of said search criteria [341-343], said at least one current task [345-347], and said selected ones [344].

Referring to claim 2, Dwek discloses in Figure 3A simultaneously displaying controls to modify said at least one of said search criteria [341-343], said at least one current task [345-347], and said selected ones [344].

Referring to claim 3, Dwek discloses in Figure 3A displaying an indication of search controls that indicate current search criteria in a display area [341-343], simultaneously displaying on said display area an indication of results of a search defined by said search criteria [344], simultaneously displaying an indication of task controls and an indication of at least one current task to be performed with respect to selected ones of said results [345-347] and indicating said selected ones [344], and permitting a user to access said search controls [341-343] and said task controls [345-347], and selectively displaying at least one of said results [344], currently selected search criteria [341-343], and said at least one current task responsively to commands from a user (see handles [330]).

Referring to claims 4-6, Dwek discloses in Figure 3A immediately updating said results list [344] responsively to current settings of said search controls [341-343] and immediately updating said indication of at least one current task responsively to modification of said task controls [345-347] (see playlist pane [320c] and player controls in top right of figure).

Referring to claim 7, Dwek discloses in Figure 3A a display generator configured to simultaneously indicate a current search criteria set [341-343], a results set [344], and a task set (see playlist pane [320c]), said task set indicating a subset of the results on which a currently selected task (playback) is to be performed, each of said search criteria set, results set, task set, or a placeholder therefor (empty space upon disabling a pane with one of handles [330]), being simultaneously displayed, said place-holder being activateable responsive to control commands [330].

Referring to claim 8, Dwek discloses in Figure 3A a task set [320c] that provides for playing music.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record on form PTO-892 and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Applicant is required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.111(c) to consider these references fully when responding to this action. The documents cited therein teach alternate media player interfaces.
